

“Manzorran Bibi”

Manzorran Bibi, lives in small village Waris Pura of Yaseenabad in Faisalabad, stitches clothes to raise her household income. Her home comprises of single room without any kitchen and the occupants include her family of seven, that is the couple itself and their 5 children.

Manzorran Bibi 30 year's old woman is doing this work so as support her husband in raising their children with proper education. She said that she is doing this work for last 8 years and spend more than 10 hours daily in work. She said that she earns Rs 150 per day which amounts to Rs. 5,000 monthly. She expressed grief over the concern that her income has not witnessed any increment for last few years.

She added that she was unable save a single penny, and faces hardships because of getting less price of her work. Because of performing this work from last 8 years she has been facing back ache as well as blood pressure problems.

She said that she used to purchase raw materials herself from the local market once in a week.

